Netzwoche anniversary issue from October 15, 2025

Netzwoche turns 25 years old - celebrate with us!

Netzwoche stands at the beginning of the history of net media ...

1999

We launch our first own media product, the Netzticker, a daily newsletter. The vision: the web will fundamentally change the IT sector and the entire economy. Everything can now be connected to everything, every server, every PC is part of a network and communicates with others. Our mission: We network the movers and shakers in the IT, web and telecommunications industry, provide them with business-relevant information and thus help to bring them together with customers and clients.

2000

The success of the Netzticker is overwhelming, it has spread rapidly. It is clear to us: the market is ready, we are taking off and founding Netzwoche.
